Message from Mr. Pollard

I recently read the following suggestions from author Jon Gordon about raising positive children and thought he had some excellent ideas which I hope you will find useful. I will include one or two of his ideas during the next few weeks:

“Share a success for the day -- Each night before bed, at dinner or while taking an after dinner walk, ask your child about their success for the day. When we help our children expect success, look for success, and celebrate success they find more success and gain more confidence.

“Bedtime Prayer or quiet time – This provides your child with a foundation of peace, security, and confidence that gives them the strength to take on the daily challenges of being a child”.

Teaching your child either one or both of these suggestions can help make a child with a positive attitude.

NEWS AND INFORMATION

Once again, The Fayette County News/Today in Peachtree City is planning to run children's letters to Santa in a special section just before Christmas, and we'd like your younger students to participate. We don't have any real requirements for content—just whatever they'd like to say to the jolly old man before Christmas Eve. We will print the letters exactly as the children write them. You can fax the letters to me at (770) 461-8172, mail them to P.O. Box 96, Fayetteville, 30214 or drop them off at our office at 210 Jeff Davis Place (right behind IHOP). Give me a call at (770) 461-6317 if you have any questions.

Thank you for your consideration,

Martha Barksdale
